

Scarlet Begonias

Grateful Dead

- V1      As I was walking round Grosvenor Square,
Not a chill to the winter, but a nip to the air.
From the other direction she was calling my eye.
It could be an illusion, but I might as well try, might as well try.
- V2      She rings on her fingers and bells on her shoes,
and I knew without asking she was into the blues.
She wore scarlet begonias tucked into her curls
I knew right away she was not like other girls, other girls.
- V3      In the thick of the evening when the dealing got rough,
She was too pat to open and too cool to bluff.
As I picked up my matches and was closing the door,
I had one of those flashes I'd been there before, been there before.
- Bridge   Well I ain't often right, but I've never been wrong,
seldom turns out the way it does in the song.
Once in a while you get shown the light in the strangest of places if you look at it right.
- V4      Well there ain't nothin wrong with the way she moves or scarlet begonias or a touch of the blues.
There's nothing wrong with the love that's in her eye.
I had to learn the hard way to let her pass by, let her pass by.

- V5      The wind in the willows plays "Tea for Two".
The sky was yellow and the sun was blue.
Strangers stopping strangers just to shake their hand;
Everybody's playing in the heart of gold band, heart of gold band.
- Outro   Long jam into Fire on the Mountain
