A Wave of Hope Phish

V1 From out of the chaos a wave appears

In the moonlit confusion

Irons melted, coming Grace, no longer frozen

V2 The pillow drowns the moans and shallow breaths

As dancing silvery rays change, each wave eyes a star

And the swollen moon hangs over the water

V3 Reflections guide the way, gold maze mirrors

As the night wheels turn

Shipwrecks sway, steel mast crashes, spin green sky

Chorus I have grown my wings, I am flying

Ascending now, I am soaring Untied my wrists, and flew away

This too shall pass, this too shall pass

Bridge We are flying, we are flying over the water

We are diving, we are diving into the water

Jam Repeat Chorus

Jam over bridge and chorus

Repeat chorus X2
