We can share the women, we can share the wine
E                      Bm                      D                      A                      E      G#m D A
We can share what we've got of yours 'cause we done shared all of mine.
E                      F#m                      C#m A
Keep on rollin', just a mile to go,
E                      Bm      D                      A                      E      B A E
Keep on rollin', my old buddy, you're movin' much too slow.

E7sus4              E7              E7sus4              E7
I just jumped the watchman, right outside the fence,
E7sus4              E7                      E7sus4              E7
Took his rings, four bucks in change, ain't that heaven sent?
F#7sus4              F#7                      F#7sus4              F#7
Hurts my ears to listen, Shannon, burns my eyes to see,
F#7sus4              F#7                      F#7sus4              D
Cut down a man in cold blood, Shannon, might as well been me.

D              Bm      A                      E
We used to play for silver, now we play for life;
D              Bm                      A                      E
And one's for sport and one's for blood at the point of a knife.
D              Bm      A                      E
And now the die is shaken, now the die must fall;
D              Bm                      A      E                      A
There ain't no winner in the game, he don't go home with all,
D G D G E
Not with all.

V2      Leavin' Texas, fourth day of July,
Sun so hot, the clouds so low, the eagles filled the sky.
Catch the Detroit Lightning out of Santa Fe,
The Great Northern out of Cheyenne from sea to shining sea.

Gotta go to Tulsa, first train we can ride,
Got to settle one old score, one small point of pride.
Ain't no place a man can hide, Shannon, to keep him from the sun;
Ain't no bed can give us rest, now, you keep us on the run.

Jack Straw from Wichita cut his buddy down,
And dug for him a shallow grave and laid his body down.
Half a mile from Tuscon, by the morning light,
One man gone and another to go, my old buddy you're moving much too slow.

Outro    We can share the women, we can share the wine.

V1 Saint Stephen with a rose, In and out of the garden he goes,
Country garland in the wind and the rain,
Wherever he goes the people all complain.

Lead ||: E / Dsus2 / | A / E / :||

V2 Stephen prospered in his time? Well he may and he may decline.
Did it matter, does it now?
Stephen would answer if he only knew how.

Lead ||: E / Dsus2 / | A / E / :||

V3 Wishing well with a golden bell, bucket hanging clear to hell,
Hell halfway twixt now and then,
Stephen fill it up and lower down and lower down again.

Break Lady finger, dipped in moonlight,
Writing "What for?" across the morning sky.
Sunlight splatters, dawn with answer,
Darkness shrugs and bids the day goodbye.
Speeding arrow, sharp and narrow,
What a lot of fleeting matters you have spurned.
Several seasons with their treasons,
Wrap the babe in scarlet colors, call it your own.

Lead ||: E / Dsus2 / | A / E / :||

V4 Did he doubt or did he try? Answers aplenty in the bye and bye,
Talk about your plenty, talk about your ills, One man gathers what another man spills.

There were days and there were days and there were days besides
When phantom ships with phantom sails set to sea on phantom tides
Comes the lightning of the sun on bright unfocused eyes
the blue of yet another day a springtime wet with sighs
a hopeful candle lingers in the land of lullabies where headless horsemen vanish with wild and lonely cries, lonely cries

V3

There were days and there were days and there were days I know
When all we ever wanted was to learn and love and grow
Once we grew into our shoes we told them where to go
Walked halfway around the world on promise of the glow
Stood upon a mountain top Walked barefoot in the snow
Gave the best we had to give How much we'll never know we'll never know

V4

There were days and there were days and there were days between polished like a golden bowl The finest ever seen Hearts of Summer held in trust still tender, young and green left on shelves collecting dust not knowing what they mean Valentines of flesh and blood as soft as velveteen hoping love would not forsake the days that lie between, lie between
